

Ordering of laboratory investigations by registered nurses and allied health professionals

Baseline Investigations for All Patients Presenting to Hospital

All patients who present to hospital will have an admission set of baseline bloods that will consist of:

- Full Blood Count (FBC)
 - Glucose
 - Urea and electrolytes (U/E)
-
- Except if Viral Haemorrhagic Fever is a possibility in which the investigations must be discussed with a consultant ID physician and senior laboratory staff before collection.