

Patient Initiated Follow-Up (PIFU)

The Nurse Urology Unit (NUU) have assigned you to the Patient Initiated Follow-Up (PIFU) pathway.

This means that you can continue to self-manage your condition without the need for routine appointments.

See over

Patient Initiated Follow-Up (PIFU)

The Nurse Urology Unit (NUU) have assigned you to the Patient Initiated Follow-Up (PIFU) pathway.

This means that you can continue to self-manage your condition without the need for routine appointments.

See over

If your symptoms get worse, please contact us to arrange an appointment. This pathway will remain open to you for 12 months.

To re-engage please call 0131 537 3214 and leave a message with your name, date of birth and postcode

Please note: Access to the pathway does not apply to any other health conditions you may have. If you have new or worrying symptoms, please contact your GP.

If your symptoms get worse, please contact us to arrange an appointment. This pathway will remain open to you for 12 months.

To re-engage please call 0131 537 3214 and leave a message with your name, date of birth and postcode

Please note: Access to the pathway does not apply to any other health conditions you may have. If you have new or worrying symptoms, please contact your GP.