

Mindful Colouring

Paediatric Psychology and Liaison Service (PPALS)
Royal Hospital for Children and Young People, Edinburgh

Mindful colouring is a calming activity that help can focus your mind on positive images and colours, and away from unhelpful or worried thoughts.

This makes it a great activity to try in the evening or at night if you are struggling to fall asleep. Why not have a go at colouring in some of images in this booklet.

Illustrations provided by It's Good 2 Give

