

Gynaecology Oncology Surgery at the Royal Infirmary Edinburgh

Information for patients

Scan the QR codes below or visit the links to view useful booklets which will take you through the process of surgery at the RIE:

1. Fit for Surgery https://policyonline.nhslothian.scot/wp-content/uploads/2023/10/1-Gynaecology-Oncology-Fit-for-Surgery-RIE.pdf
2. Having a General Anaesthetic for Abdominal Surgery https://policyonline.nhslothian.scot/wp-content/uploads/2023/10/2-Gynaecology-Oncology-Having-a-General-Anaesthetic-for-Abdominal-Surgery-RIE.pdf
3. Day of Surgery https://policyonline.nhslothian.scot/wp-content/uploads/2023/10/3-Gynaecology-Oncology-Day-of-Surgery-RIE.pdf
4. Getting Going After Surgery https://policyonline.nhslothian.scot/wp-content/uploads/2023/10/4-Gynaecology-Oncology-Getting-Going-After-Surgery-RIE.pdf
5. Pain Relief After Surgery https://policyonline.nhslothian.scot/wp-content/uploads/2023/10/5-Gynaecology-Oncology-Pain-Relief-After-Surgery-RIE.pdf
6. Going Home After Surgery https://policyonline.nhslothian.scot/wp-content/uploads/2023/10/6-Gynaecology-Oncology-Going-Home-After-Surgery-RIE.pdf

Scan the QR codes below or visit the links for fasting and diet guidance before your surgery:

Fasting guidelines - low residue diet

<https://policyonline.nhslothian.scot/wp-content/uploads/2023/12/Fasting-guidelines-low-residue-diet-Gynaecology-Oncology-RIE.pdf>

Moviprep Instructions

<https://policyonline.nhslothian.scot/wp-content/uploads/2023/12/Moviprep-Instructions-for-Gynaecology-Oncology-RIE.pdf>

